

AMYL AND THE SNIFFERS

Amyl and the Sniffers are a four piece pub punk/rock band hailing from Melbourne. After forming in February 2016 they have been relentlessly dishing out their short, fast, Sharpie

Punk to pubs and bars along the East Coast.

In February 2017 they released their second E.P 'Big Attraction' which gained The Sniffers a lot of praise and plays – including the opportunity to play live on PBS, spins on Triple J, international features and SYN FM's Album of the Month.

"Frontwoman, Amy Taylor's nasal vocals are something of an unconventional beauty. Her antagonistic persona and barebone snarls prove that frontwomen of punk are a force to be reckoned with. The call and response vocals provide an element of storytelling- akin to Eddy Current Suppression Ring." – Tonedead.com.au
